

Kayser Silk Knickerbockers

$2.95, $3.50 and $3.95

There are few garments that have been introduced in recent years that have achieved the popularity of the silk knickerbocker. This is really the only satisfactory undergarment for the fashionable narrow, clinging skirt. At the same time, it is so comfortable and so dainty that it is really the ideal type of underwear. We carry the celebrated Kayser make of silk knickerbockers. They are washable and fast color, and come in three grades, as follows:

Kayser's Venetian silk knickerbockers, open and closed styles, in black, white and pink, with elastic knee and belt, priced, per pair $2.95

Kayser's Italian silk knickerbockers, closed, in black, white, pink, blue and navy, elastic knee and belt, reinforced crotch, priced, per pair $3.50

Kayser's extra quality Italian silk knickerbockers, open, in black, white and pink, elastic knee and belt, reinforced, priced, per pair $3.95

ROOSEVELT CASE DRAWS BIG CROWD

would combat the attitude of the plaintiff.

Attorney Pound here rose and said:

Pound Wanted to Sue for $50,000.

"At first I wanted to sue for $50,000, but Col. Roosevelt insisted that the amount asked for should be nominal. He did not want to be vindictive, but wanted merely damages for the publication of a falsehood."

It was stated by Mr. Belden that the pecuniary damages in this case under the law might be any sum from 6 cents to $50,000, regardless of the amount asked in the suit.

Whether the libel was true or not, Mr. Belden argued the defendant believed the article to be true and did not publish it out of malice.

Attorney Pound for Col. Roosevelt, said he would not oppose the attitude of the defense that the admission of so-called hearsay evidence bearing upon the colonel's reputation as to liquor, was merely to mitigate damages.

He contended that the evidence should not be admitted unless it should be proved that the defendant knew of the reports before he published the article and believed them to be true and based his article on them, believing them to be true.

"Under the position of the defense," argued Mr. Pound, "a man may be as pure as St. Paul and his reputation may be ruined in a moment by a lot of gossip mongers. The two points attempted by the defense are incompatible. You cannot mitigate and deny at the same time."

Cites Case of England's King.

"The defense has said this case is unprecedented," shouted Mr. Pound, "it is true that there has been a reluctance on the part of presidents to come into court, but I can cite you a recent case where the King of England prosecuted a newspaper for charging him with being a bigamist in marrying a woman while he was a sailor and before he married the present queen. Would it have been a defense for the editor to have come into court and say, 'I only know what I heard and publish what I hear?'"

Not Excessive User of Liquor.

Had Col. Roosevelt been an excessive user of alcoholic liquor he never would have survived the shock he sustained when he was shot in Milwaukee last year, according to Dr. Alexander Lambert, his intimate friend and family physician, who testified Tuesday afternoon before the jury in the Roosevelt case.

Dr. Lambert said he had known Col. Roosevelt since 1891, and had been on numerous hunting trips with him. The witness said, in his profession he was an expert on alcoholic subjects and he had treated 40,000 of them.

"From your close personal experience with Mr. Roosevelt on hunting trips and in official life at Washington what would you say of the man who drank to excess or not?" Dr. Lambert was asked.

"He was extremely temperate," replied the witness with emphasis.

Has Splendid Physique.

Dr. Lambert said the first time he was called upon to give his professional services to Col. Roosevelt was when the latter was at Mercy hospital at Chicago, suffering from the wound he received from the bullet in Milwaukee. When the witness was asked to describe the course the bullet took in the body, objection was made by the defense on the ground it was immaterial.

Another question was permitted.

"If he had been a constant user of alcoholic drinks, is your opinion as to his chances of recovery?"

"He would not have recovered."

"To what then do you attribute his recovery?"

"To his splendid physique, unpoisoned by alcohol."

Doctor Prescribes Whisky.

Dr. Lambert then told how he had been on hunting trips with the colonel in 1895, 1896 and 1897. During these trips, he said, he never had observed Col. Roosevelt drink any whisky except once, that was when the colonel was suffering from a Cuban fever he had contracted in the Cuban campaign.

"I gave him a teaspoonful of whisky to hasten the perspiration," said the witness, "that was all the whisky I ever gave him."

"During your 22 years acquaintance with him, did you ever know of his being under the influence of liquor of any kind?"

"I never did."

"Did you ever observe the smell of alcohol on his breath?"

"Never."

"If he had been a user of strong drink to excess what would have been the result of his bullet wound?"

"Well, if he had drunk alcoholic drinks to excess the wound would have resulted in his having delirium tremens. It very often does in cases of that kind."

Meeting of Witnesses.

"When cross-examined Dr. Lambert was asked whether there had not been a meeting of witnesses at the El Paso in Col. Roosevelt's editorial office in New York, and whether it had not been talked over to what testimony should be given here."

Dr. Lambert said he had been in Col. Roosevelt's office and had signed a statement giving the substance of his testimony.

"You know Mr. Roosevelt drinks wine at his meals, don't you—many of his meals?"

"No, I said I had seen him take light wines at lunch."

"Did you ever see him drink champagne?"

"Yes, I have seen him drink it at public dinners, but never more than a glassful. He drank it at a dinner given to his guides on the Colorado hunting trip."

Liquor on Hunting Trips.

On these hunting trips there was liquor carried in the camp, but I never saw it."

"Yes, I had some myself."

On redirect examination Dr. Lambert was asked, "What kind of a markman was Mr. Roosevelt?"

Objection was interposed, but attorney separated. The body was found by Mr. Montfort, who notified the others.

On account of the roughness of the canyon, it was impossible to reach it with a vehicle. The members of the searching party were compelled to carry the body 500 yards before it could be placed in the hearse which had been sent for.

No Known Reason.

There is no reason known for Gobel taking his life. It was stated that he had been melancholy for several days. Monday morning, the time he is said to have taken his life, Gobel was to have reported to H. T. Ponsford for work. He had been working steadily.

The deceased came here from Sterling, Ill., about nine years ago. One year later his family, from the same place, joined him here. He is reported to have been a steady, hardworking man, buying the lots and building his own home in Highland park.

In addition to his wife, two sons, Mason, aged 16, and Albert, 14, and a daughter, Elizabeth, aged 5 years, he is survived by one brother and three sisters. The brother, John Gobel, a carpenter at present is living at Douglas, Ariz. The three sisters, Grace, Stella and Mary, reside at Deming, N. M. The latter three left El Paso some time ago to take up land at Columbus, N. M.

The funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from 508 Texas street. Rev. J. F. Williams, of the First Baptist church, will conduct the ceremonies. Interment will be made in the Evergreen cemetery.

SELLS A RAILROAD STATION TO RANCHER

Mexican Central Officials Have Difficulty Convincing Purchaser That Sale Was Fraudulent.

Sales of the Mexican temple in Chicago to over-trusting rural folk are standing jokes in the middle west. A Mexican station agent on the Mexican Central has duped the fake sale of the big Chicago building by selling the station house where he was employed to a rancher. Passengers on the Central brought the story to Justice Tuesday that the agent of a little station down the Central sold out the station, furniture and good will to a Mexican rancher who wished to occupy it as his ranch home. The man made the agent an offer for the substantial stone building, contents and a week's supply of food. The agent lost no time in selling the whole layout, boarding the next train and coming to the border.

It took the railroad officials a week to convince the ranchero that the station was the property of the railroad company, and that the agent had no right to sell it.

BENEFITED MANY WHO HAD LUNG TROUBLE

Those who suffer from Lung Trouble are generally troubled with night sweats, fever, loss of strength and little or no appetite. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine which has been most successful in stopping night sweats, reducing fever and promoting appetite, and many who have used it declare it saved their lives. Investigate what it did in this case.

"Dear Sir: For four years I was troubled with cough, which gradually became worse. I had night sweats and pains in my chest. I was losing my appetite and had become so thin and weak I could not attend to my household duties. A physician pronounced my disease Consumption. Not being satisfied I was examined by the physicians of the Polytechnic Hospital. They also confirmed my trouble and I was ordered away for treatment. My nephew would not allow me to go until I had taken the medicine three weeks. I had marked relief, night sweats ceased, pain in the breast relieved, cough became loose and easy, fever left me and I commenced getting well. My health became normal. I am in excellent health now and have been for twelve years. I strongly recommend it." (Signed) (MRS.) MARY WARREN, Care Ed. Green, 1753 S. 17th St., Phila. Pa.

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious in cases of severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in up-building the system. Does not contain narcotics or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Kelly & Pollard, Knoblauch Drug Co., People's Drug Store, and other leading druggists.
